

Page 6 of the RFP states that proposals must be submitted electronically to you. Page 12 (Attachment G) states “Written proposals must be submitted in a sealed envelope...” Are we correct in assuming that we should submit both electronically and physically (in writing)?

No.. either electronically or physically will meet the requirements.